

Towards a Better Life

An Exploration of the Social Role Valorisation Framework with Regard to People who are Marginalised

ABOUT THIS WORKSHOP

(how to make the most of contemporary opportunities)

This workshop explores how getting valued roles can lead to changed societal perceptions and strengthen the likelihood that people with a devalued status will get a better life.

The core themes and principles of SRV will be explored through presentations, exercises and discussions. Completion allows entry to the practicum, PASSING.

WHO THIS WORKSHOP IS FOR

This workshop is designed for participants from a range of sectors (disability, aged care, mental health, youth etc). This will include support workers, coordinators, family members, people with disabilities, people with a mental illness and older people receiving services.

Participants will be people who are looking for ways of meeting the real needs of marginalised people, resulting in a better lives.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Jane Sherwin is an Accredited Teacher of SRV, having been involved in the teaching, learning and application of SRV since the early 1990s. She is a member of the Australian & New Zealand SRV Group.

Based as a consultant in Queensland, Jane has been involved in the lives of people with disabilities and older people since the late 1970s, in government and community services as an occupational therapist, manager, lecturer, and organisational change manager.

Guest speakers will also contribute.

LOOKING TO STUDY SRV FURTHER?

This course enables you to attend the SRV practicum, called PASSING; the next in Brisbane will be in 2020. This five day course includes visits to 2 human services and the use of an evaluation tool based on SRV to understand the impact of each service on the lives of the people they serve.

TURN BUZZ-WORDS INTO REALITY!

The SRV framework will help give meaning and depth to opportunities under NDIS and Consumer Directed Care. It underpins the application of Person-Centred Approaches and informs questions of Choice and Control.
